

Stewart 34 built by John Rae

A unique opportunity to own a stunning boat.

Built in 1983 in Glenfield, Auckland, by John Rae and was project managed by Stewart 34 class stalwart Ken Allen. Pendragon was the only Stewart 34 built by this famous boat builder, and is unique in the pantheon of this famous class. Her quality and finish are truly unique, and she was launched weighing right on the class limit. Still owned by the family who commissioned her, the time has come to pass Pendragon on to new custodians.

Built of three layer Kauri and then Dynel sheathed, and built with the West System ensuring a minimum long term weight gain she requires minimal maintenance, her gorgeous interior be...
