

Mystic 60

'Ohana' is a rare and exceptional bluewater cruising yacht -- purpose-designed by one of the world's great naval architects, German Frers, meticulously built in Cornwall, UK, and kept in Sydney by owners who have spent the past five years investing nearly $300,000 in comprehensive improvements. She is ready to go anywhere on earth, and she is ready right now to cross oceans.

The German Frers Mystic 60 is not a production yacht. Alan Morgan commissioned Frers to design his ideal offshore cruiser, and only a handful were ever built. Ohana was completed in 2001 by the Swain family in Penryn, Cornwall -- built to a standard befitting her pedigree, with a Divynicell-c...
